

AAC-Tech Road Show – Free, Fun, Informative!

Liberator's AAC-Tech Road Shows are a great informative (FREE!) way for you to get “hands-on” experience with the extensive range of No-Tech, Low-Tech and Mid-Tech AAC products that Liberator has to offer. We will be looking at implementation strategies, free resources and getting hands-on with various practical sessions.

Date: Wednesday 12th October

Time: 9.30am – 3:30pm

Venue: Hannah's at Seale Hayne, Newton Abbot, Devon, TQ12 6NQ

Presented by: Verity-Jane Hart

- Overview of products – a look at the extensive range of products available from Liberator
- Implementation Strategies – ideas for use of your AAC-Tech equipment
- Free Resources – a look at the available resources from Liberator
- Practical Sessions – case studies, a look at communication opportunities

Liberator's AAC Regional Consultant

I have worked for Liberator since January 2008. My experience in AAC is working with children with ASD via the CAP project on implementing AAC in the classroom. I have also worked in a specialist school in the SLT department where I worked with a number of students using high-tech aids and had a total communication policy including signing, use of symbols and so on.
